

School Newspaper seeks editors, reporters & photographers!

Students in grades 3 through 8 can contribute to the school newspaper. Please talk to Ms. Joseph about how you can become involved.

MMSA families can also e-mail photographs to Ms. Joseph for possible use in the newspaper (and she will also forward them to the yearbook and school newsletter).

Thank you!!

WOLF STREET JOURNAL

September 2011 Issue One

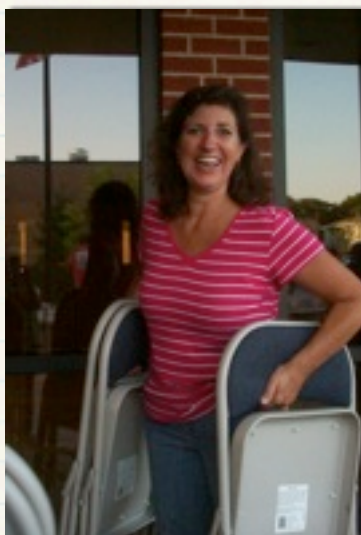

Happy to fill up the middle school lockers with back-to-school STUFF!

Ali taking a break from taking pictures for the school paper.

PICNIC: HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

FIRST LOST ITEM FOUND!

Lizzie and Kelly hold up the first clothing item of the 2011-2012 school year that was lost by its owner. The sweatshirt certainly wasn't needed at the fun Back-to-School Picnic -- the weather was warm! Please remember to print names on all clothing, lunch boxes and backpacks!

Favorite Fair Foods!!!

There is no limit to the food choices at the great Minnesota State Fair, and apparently there is no limit to what MMSA students like to eat when they visit the Fair. Jordan Niles didn't have to think long at all when asked for her favorite fair food. "Cheese Curds!" says Jordan. Anna Mathsen is also a fan of the fried cheese chunks. Gabby Gordy doesn't want to go without Sweet Martha Cookies. Rebecca Rustand's choice is the Funnel Cake. Andrew Stoup and Joe Kinsman both pick Pronto Pups for their favorite (which was also the menu item on the day they were asked this question! Good work TST Catering!) Ella Klein says her favorite food at the Great Minnesota Get Together is cream puffs. Katie Vavra picks the deep-fried pickle on a stick. Another favorite on-a-stick food is, according to Emma McNeil, "Big Fat Bacon on a stick!" And last but not least, Logan Sullivan recommends the ostrich on a stick. Hopefully, it is served without feathers!

Photo information for State Fair Foods story: Joe, Logan and Andrew. Photo by Henry Kelly. Jordan, Gabby, Lexi, and Rebecca. Photo by Ms. Joseph. Anna, Ella, Katie and Emma. Photo by Christina Rice.